1796, May 4. Petition of Gersham Mott, of said Co., for division of lands of John Emley, dec'd. That said John Emley died without issue; the petitioner being a son of Elizabeth Mott, dec'd, a sister of said John Emley, and thereof one of the next of kin.

1796, May 4. Petition of William Van Horn, of said Co., for division of lands of said John Emley, dec'd; among the respective heirs at law, i.e., one brother, Robert Emley, 2 sisters, Sarah (wife of Aaron Watson) and Rebecca (now widow of Daniel Potts); also, Sarah (only child of William Emley, dec'd, a brother of said John Emley, dec'd), the children of Elisha Emley, dec'd (a brother), the children of Lucia Van Horn (a sister), the children of Elizabeth Mott, and the children of Nancy Forman. Whereas a number of the heirs are under 21 years of age, the petitioner (son of Lucia Van Horn, dec'd), prays that a commission be appointed for the purpose of effecting said division.

1796, Nov. 8. Report of Silas Condict, one of the committee appointed by the Orphans' Court for division of lands; that the peculiar situation of the estate of said John Emley, dec'd, makes legislative aid necessary.

1796, Nov. 7. Petition to the Legislative Council and General Assembly, signed by Robert Emley, Aaron Watson, Sarah Watson, Rebecca Potts, Aaron Forman, Edward T. Forman, John E. Forman, Ruth Mott, Lucy Mott, Mary Mott and Sarah Emley (heirs at law of said John Emley, dec'd), that a law be passed appointing Trustees to sell and convey all real estate of the said John Emley; also to receive deeds and to give deeds to persons who have purchased of him. That the said John Emley left real estate amounting to about six or seven thousands pounds to be divided between his 3 brothers and 5 sisters and their heirs; some of the brothers and sisters being deceased. Real estate consists of improved farm of 300 acres in Alexandria Twsp., said Co., with large mansion house, kitchen, office, barn, stables, coach house, hovels, barracks and other buildings; also 3 farms and 2 lots in Kingwood Twsp., said Co., and 2 lots in Bethlehem Twsp., said Co.; also a grist and oil mill in Lebanon Twsp., said Co., and a lot of unimproved land in Morris Co. That John Emley, in his life time, did sell several pieces of land to: i.e., Garret Covenhoven, Peter Wycoff, Cornelius Hoff and John Allen; also a grist and oil mill to Bartles and Worts, and a tanyard to John Ganow, on which sales part of purchase money was paid. Also, one of the farms (148 acres) in Bethlehem Twsp., was purchased by said John Emley of Henry Cuyler, dec'd, and the deed to be made for same by James Parker and Abraham Ogden, Trustees to said Cuyler, on which a balance is due. That Bartles and Worts, who had purchased the grist and oil mill, have both left the state, and have conveyed their right to another person. Also due to the minority of several of the heirs and the above reasons, a special Trustee should be appointed.

1797, Feb. 7. Robert Emley and Joseph King, appointed Trustees, by order of the Committee; signed by Elisha Walton.

1784, Aug. 9. Sinnickson, Andrew, of Penn's Neck, Salem Co.; will of. To eldest son, Thomas, plantation in the precinct of Penn's Neck, put in his possession 7 years ago, and now in the tenure of Gamelial Garrison; also 2 tracts of woodland in same precinct and Co., bounded by lands of Andrew M. Collins, William Philpot, blacksmith, John Crips, William Bilderback and John Yurinson; subject to charges hereinafter mentioned. To 2nd son, Andrew, plantation in the said precinct and Co., where he now dwells, which tract was settled in division as between my two sons, Andrew and Thomas; also a lot of meadow land in same precinct and Co., on the east side of ditch running to Cobb's creek; also, 3 tracts of woodland in same precinct and Co., which I purchased of Francis Mills, Daniel Bilderback and the agents of the Proprietors of Pennsylvania; subject to charges hereinafter mentioned. To youngest son, John, homestead plantation whereon I now dwell, named in ancient deeds, "Fenwick's Point;" also 2 tracts of woodland in said precinct and Co., the one devised to me by my father, and the other bounded by lands of John Yurinson and others; and all meadow lands now in my tenure, except meadow devised to my son Andrew; subject to charges hereinafter mentioned. Whereas, upon the decease of my wife, Sarah Sinnickson, certain lands held in her right descended to my son, Thomas, as one of his mother's heirs, it is my will that his share of this land of his mother be conveyed one year after my decease unto my grandchildren, Sarah, Margaret, William, George W., Andrew, Rebecca and Eleanor Mecum, children of my eldest daughter, Eleanor Mecum, deceased, to be divided into equal shares between them; in default of such conveyance, my son, Thomas, is to be charged with £150 as against the lands I have herein bequeathed him, the money to be divided into equal shares among the children of my daughter, Eleanor Mecum, deceased, and paid 1 year after my decease. Son, Andrew, to convey his share of land which he received from his mother one year after my decease unto granddaughters, Jane and Rebecca Trenchard, daughters of my second daughter, Mary Trenchard, deceased, or, in default of such conveyance, to pay them £150, as charged against the land herein bequeathed him, one year after my decease. Son, John, to convey his share of land descinded from his deceased mother, to my youngest daughter Sarah Dick; or, in default thereof, to pay her £150 one year after my decease. Sons, Thomas, Andrew and John, a tract of woodland and swamp known as 'Gilletes Tract,' in said precinct and Co.; and a tract of land and plantation in the Princinct of Manington, said Co., purchased of Daniel Edwards and known as Hawke's Bridge; and the plantation purchased of John Rambo and wife, at Billingsport, Gloucester Co.; the same to be held in trust by them for one year, after which the 3 tracts of land are to be divided into three equal parts and conveyed to the children of my deceased daughter, Eleanor Mecum, for one part; to the children of my deceased daughter, Mary Trenchard, for one part; and to my daughter, Sarah Dick, for one part. Son, Andrew, my wearing apparel. Son, John, all farming utensils; also my negro boys, Say and Wiltshire, and man Will. Sons, Thomas and Andrew, my negro man, Michael Norry, and his mother, my negro woman, Rose; said Michael Norry to work for wages or be hired out for wages and to support his mother. Daughter, Sarah Dick, £100, one year after my decease.

Residue and remainder of personal into 3 equal parts; one part to the 7 Mecum grandchildren, to be put out at interest until they respectively are 21, or marry, when the respective one is to have his or her share; one part to the 2 Trenchard granddaughters, with the same provision. The other one part, to daughter, Sarah Dick. Executors—sons, Thomas, Andrew and John Sinnickson, and son-in-law, Samuel Dick. Witnesses—Samuel Leake, Joseph Lies, Thomas Clement and John Denn.

1788, Aug. 21. Codicil. On account that new purchases of land alters disposition of part of said estate. Son, Thomas, plantation now in the possession of John Lafferty, being that part of land mentioned in will which I hold in the right of my deceased wife, Sarah; that tract of land purchased of John and Lourina Cripps; that tract of 10 acres of meadow purchased of Albert Bilderback; that tract of land purchased of Edward Mecum, and ½ part of my tract of woodland known as Gillet's Tract; on condition that he pays £600 into my personal estate, 1 year after my decease. Son, Andrew, the plantation purchased of Frazer Hildreth whereon Andrew Cole now lives, together with a house and lot purchased of Jacob Savoy, on condition he pays £400 for same 1 year after my decease. Son, John, plantation in Manington Twsp., purchased of Daniel Edwards, and known as "Hawkes Bridge"; also plantation in Upper Penn's Neck purchased of Jonas Nelson, on condition he pays £400; also, plantation purchased of John Rambo and wife at Billingsport, Gloucester [mentioned in will], on condition he pays £150 for same; or, if he refuses this option, then son, Andrew, the option; if he refuses, then son, Thomas. Son, Andrew, tract of woodland of 11 acres bounding on John Garrison's, purchased of the Proprietors of Pennsylvania and being in my will devised to son John. Daughter, Sarah, wife of Dr. Samuel Dick, plantation in Lower Penn's Neck, which I hold in the right of my deceased wife [mentioned in will], whereon Benjamin Abbot now lives; also a piece of swamp purchased of Edward Mecum (the same being now held by my sons, Thomas, Andrew and John as their share of their mother's land, decended to them, and which they are to reconvey to their sister); £700 being charged against her for same. Sons, Andrew and John, to convey their share of the plantation now in possession of John Lafferty (being part of their share of land descended from their mother), to their brother, Thomas. The sums thereby charged and paid into my personal estate and other personals to be divided into three equal parts. To daughter, Sarah Dick, one equal part, free of the £100 bequeathed her, but she to convey her share of the land from her mother to my son, Thomas. To the children of my deceased daughter, Eleanor Mecum, one equal share to be divided equally between them when they respectively are 21; on condition they all sign off their right in land left by my deceased wife. To the 2 daughters of my deceased daughter, Mary Trenchard, the other equal part when they severally are 21; on condition they sign off their right and interest in land left by my wife, Sarah Sinnickson, deceased. Should sons refuse to take said lands on conditions mentioned, that which is refused to be divided between my daughter and grandchildren aforesaid. INDEXES

I. INDEX OF NAMES OF PERSONS

II. INDEX OF PLACE-NAMES

Index of Names of Persons

Note.—The names of testators, intestate persons or wards, printed in heavy type in the preceding text, are not repeated in this Index, as a rule. Where maiden names can be ascertained from the body of the will, they are included.

Where surnames in common use today, or at least with well-known spellings, are unusually or curiously used in the text, the current modern spelling is substituted in this Index, to facilitate reference. An exception is made where proper spelling is uncertain. To a lesser extent the same rule has been applied to Christian names.
